Edgar Williams, State Civil Service Commissioner, was down from Sacramento last week to visit his family here.

Mrs. S. Chamberlin, sister of Thos. S. Parkhurst, has recently purchased two business lots on Ocean Avenue, and also the Lawrence Leidig home on San Carlos Highway.

At Pasadena early this month a boy arrived in the family of Rev. and Mrs. Robert Freeman. He has been named David Guthrie.

L. S. Slevin, Notary Public.

Mrs. J. F. Foster and Cousin Mollie Allen came down from Oakland last Sunday afternoon for a stay of at least a week. Oh yes—Pumpnickle came too.

"The Copperhead," a great picture, is to be given at the local theatre tonight. This is a dollar show. The prices here will be 20c. and 40c.

Mrs. J. B. Lauck, wife of the General, was a week-end guest of Mrs. J. A. Freeman. Miss Helen Freeman has gone to New York to continue her musical studies. Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Bell have gone to Pasadena.

The Narvaez family, Leo excepted, is away on a three weeks' trip in southern California, where they will visit relatives.

The Misses Olive and Anette Ebens of Bellingham, Wash., have left for home. They were all summer guests of Mrs. J. A. Freeman here.

Prof. H. D. Gray and family of Palo Alto are Carmel sojourners. They have taken a cottage for a few weeks.

Goold's Stage, Transfer and Auto Hire office now at old building across from Carmel Garage. Phone 605 W 5.

Weekly trips to San Jose and classes at the Monterey High School, have made it necessary for Thomas V. Cator to have a car, and no sooner said than done, he's now driving a Briscoe.

Colonel Dutton and family of San Francisco will move their home to Carmel Highlands about November 1. The Colonel purchased the Winslow residence several months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Maxtone-Graham and son and Mrs. C. W. Hare and children are in town for a brief visit.

Obituary

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Vincent Cator were called to San Francisco on Tuesday by the death of Mr. Cator's father, which occurred on Monday night.

T. V. Cator was one of the State's brilliant legal lights, having been retained in many important cases. For many years he was president of San Francisco's Election Commission, being an authority on election laws. At one time he was the Populist candidate for United States Senator.

The sad news has been received of the death of Mrs. L. B. Plunkett, the mother of Mrs. M. R. Church. She passed away at Ross, Marin county, on September 13, and was buried from Saint Raphael's Church in San Rafael, where solemn requiem mass was said.

New Trustee Named

Having accepted the resignation of F. R. Bechdolt as a city trustee, the Board had two alternatives to exercise in providing a successor. The one was by appointment, the other by calling an election thirty days from the date of the acceptance of the resignation.

The Board adopted the most expedient and cheaper method, and at last night's meeting Michael J. Murphy was appointed trustee, to serve until the city election in April, 1922.

The Blue Bird Tea Room is now serving dinners, daily, except Sundays, from 12:30 to 1:30. Reservations should be made. adv

No One Will Be Deceived by Democratic Attempt to Use
Great President's Name.

THE PEOPLE KNEW ROOSEVELT

Death of Foremost American Has Not Dimmed His Deeds in the Minds of Patriots.

By William Hoster

May one who was more or less intimately associated with Theodore Roosevelt in the last fifteen years of his life say a word in regard to the developing tendencies of the pending presidential campaign?

Governor James M. Cox, the Democratic candidate, with increasing frequency is using the name of Colonel Roosevelt in his speeches, as of one from whom the Governor has derived his inspiration for this momentous campaign, and whose support of Mr. Cox's so-called policies would be forthcoming were Roosevelt alive. At least, Governor Cox is at pains to make it appear that it is into his hands that the torch borne by Colonel Roosevelt was entrusted when the latter passed on.

Addressing the Ohio Democratic State Convention at Columbus on August 17th, among other things Governor Cox said:

"Need I remind you that it was in this State that Theodore Roosevelt, that great American, made his speech proclaiming his creed, not that the judges alone should be recalled, but that the judicial procedure itself should be subject to recall."

Acknowledged Error.

First and foremost, no man who knew Theodore Roosevelt well, and was proud to follow his leadership, needs to be told that he lived to realize the error of that specific doctrine which Governor Cox now drags from the political limbo of dead things.

But aside from this, the one outstanding note in Roosevelt's great career was his uncompromising, tried and true Americanism. He was an American above and beyond everything else. His Americanism arose above all party considerations. He was jealous of his country's honor, proud of its traditions, zealous in the maintenance of its integrity and independence. He labored incessantly to promote that national unity which he believed to be one of the safeguards of the Republic; and his faith in Washington's Farewell Address and in the Monroe Doctrine was such that he regarded strict adherence to the injunctions of both as the two great bulwarks of our national existence. If it were necessary to prove these assertions, columns could be quoted from his writings and speeches in support thereof. But one has only to mention the name of Theodore Roosevelt to bring before the mind a picture of a United States strong, self-reliant and independent.

Roosevelt's Position Clear.

One does not have to ponder long to reach a conclusion, therefore, where Roosevelt would stand if happily he were among us today. The man who in 1916 avowed that the supreme national need was the overthrow of Wilsonism and all that Wilsonism represents would have a mighty well-defined position in the fighting today if he were with us, and he would not be ranged on the side of Governor Cox.

The man who, though age was creeping upon him, demanded as his right that he be sent across to face with the two hundred thousand men that clamored to accompany him, the German menace; and who grimly laid down the plea that by his end on the field of battle the drooping morale of the entente forces might be revived, though the death of a former President of the United States would have had little in common with a candidate whose newspapers proclaimed sixteen months after the sinking of the Lusitania, that "The German U-boats have committed no crime against us."

Remember in what stirring words Roosevelt denounced the Lusitania sinking, and how, throughout all that drab period of American neutrality, his powerful voice rang through the land awakening the patriotism of our people to the culmination in April, 1917, when even Mr. Wilson finally was compelled to face the inevitable.

There is no law against Governor Cox's use of Colonel Roosevelt's name. Nor is there any law on the statute books providing for the crimes which are committed in the name of progressiveness for which Colonel Roosevelt stood. There are Napoleons of finance, of wheat, of oil and of industry, but there was only one Napoleon. There are Jimmies and Eddies and Harries, but there was only one Teddy.

In the campaign upon which we have entered, the name of Roosevelt will be invoked many times in many places in behalf of many things. But few in all the great army of those who followed Roosevelt will be deceived. They know above all other things that the safety and integrity of the United States lay closest to Theodore Roosevelt's heart, and with them his doctrine of stalwart Americanism will prevail against any preaching of progressivism which seeks to lure them from the path of patriotic duty.

The Wonders of America

By T. T. MAXEY

BUNKER HILL MONUMENT.

THE elevation known as "Bunker Hill" is situated in Charlestown, Boston harbor. On this spot, on June 17, 1775, was fought the famous Battle of Bunker Hill, between the British and American forces. Here the gratitude and patriotism of the American people have caused to be erected a great granite obelisk as a memorial.

Located in the center of a four-acre square and surrounded by an iron fence, this monument is 221 feet high and 39 feet in diameter at the base. Within the shaft is a circular stairway leading to a chamber, 11 feet in diameter and 17 feet high, at the top, from which is visible a view that thrills the heart of every American, who has been fortunate enough to witness it.

It is an interesting fact that the corner stone was laid by General Lafayette, a son of glorious France, during his famous visit to America in 1825. The monument was dedicated in 1842, on which occasion Daniel Webster spoke these famous words:

"It looks, it speaks, it acts, to the full comprehension of every American mind, and the awakening of glowing enthusiasm in every American heart. Its silent but awful utterance; its deep pathos, as it brings to our contemplation the 17th of June, 1775, and the consequences which have resulted to us, to our country, and to the world, from the events of that day, and which we know must continue to rain influence to the destinies of mankind to the end of time."
